FROM CONCEPT TO ROOM TYPES TO MODULES

Guest room millwork projects present their own unique set of challenges that can only be overcome by experienced millwork professionals. Typically, design concepts are presented and expanded to different room types. The final, crucial step is the millwork professional's ability to modularize each room to gain efficiency and deliver a cost-effective solution.

As a premier hospitality group devoted to serving the hotel industry, we excel at customizing our guest room program to achieve this modularity while maintaining design intent. The result is a smooth process for all project stakeholders from initial concept through installation. We simplify the complicated.

EXPERIENCE UNMATCHED SERVICE

Partnering with EIS, you can expect a single point of contact, easy-to-read documents, scope consolidation, and turnkey services. Achieving your goals with EIS means gaining extensive value engineering, brand consistency at each location, and quality assurance. We have the knowledge and dedicated resources to consistently serve your hotel brand, from global giants to new emerging concepts.
